SUMMARY OF THE CASE

The South Carolina State Board of Education (State Board) considered this matter on June 9, 2004. On November 26, 2003 the State Department of Education (Department) sent Ms. Janice Gamble a notice of her right to a due process hearing regarding the possible suspension of her South Carolina educator certificate (certificate) by certified mail, return receipt requested delivery restricted to addressee, and regular mail. The Department has no proof that Ms. Gamble received the initial notice. On May 13, 2003, an employee of the Berkeley County School District personally served Ms. Gamble with a copy of the notice. She did not request a hearing and is now in default. After considering the evidence presented by the Department, the State Board voted to suspend Ms. Gamble's certificate until she repays her outstanding loan with the State of South Carolina obtained through the Center for Teacher Education, Recruitment, Retention and Advancement (CERRA).

FINDINGS OF FACT

Ms. Gamble holds a valid certificate, with over sixteen years of teaching experience. She was under contract with the Berkeley County School District (District) for the 2003-2004 school year. On October 22, 2001, Ms. Gamble signed a promissory note with the State of South Carolina to obtain a loan of $2300 to pay for the costs of applying for certification from the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards (NBPTS). One of the terms of that agreement was that Ms. Gamble agreed to pay a $300 non-refundable application fee if she withdrew from the application process prior to the submission of the required portfolio to NBPTS. Ms. Gamble did withdraw prior to that date and has not repaid the $300. CERRA and the State Department of Education sent several letters notifying Ms. Gamble of her failure to comply with the terms of the loan agreement.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The State Board may suspend the certificate of any person for unprofessional conduct. S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-160 (2004); 24 S.C. Code Regs. 43-58 (1992). The State Board finds that there is substantial evidence supporting its decision to suspend Ms. Gamble's certificate # 147117 from the date of this Order until she has satisfied her financial obligation in the amount of $300 to the State of South Carolina as established in the loan agreement referenced above. At the end of the suspension period if Ms. Gamble wants her certificate reinstated, she may make a written request for reinstatement to the Office of Teacher Certification of the Department.
